

Operation Pied Piper

In World War 2 about 80,000 children from cities were evacuated to the British countryside to protect them from danger. This was known as Operation Pied Piper. Can you guess which items the average child would have taken? Tick the ones you have selected.

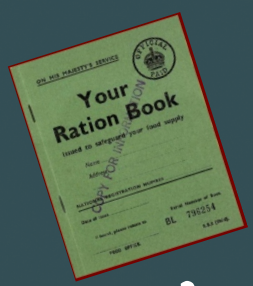

Think what you might take?

Timeline of the Nicholson War Memorial

Draw a line from each picture to where you think it should appear on the timeline

 The inside of the war memorial is made of baked clay bricks
 Silk fabric was invented in China in around 700 BC. Profits from the Silk Industry paid for this building
 The weather-vane was re-gilded with gold-leaf in the late 1990s
 The Jacquard loom sped up the manufacture of silk which led to large profits for people like the Nicholson family
 Portland stone used to build the memorial was formed in the Tithonian stage of the Jurassic period.
 c.145 million years ago c.2,700 years ago c.210 years ago c.90 years ago c.15 years ago

My Tour of the Nicholson War Memorial

Name:

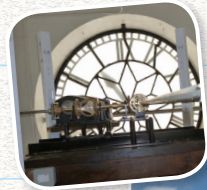

www.nicholsonmemorial.org.uk

Can you find the answers to our riddles?

1. Look to where you'll find the time, my face is white, my hands are black. An enemy I am not, but how many faces have I got?
2. 535 people are listed here, as soldiers, discipline ruled their lives but in what Order do their names appear?
3. We creatures both sleep in nests but can you find us, a clue is where a visitor might have a rest.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

- # Use the welcome board to find the answers to our quiz
1. How tall is the Nicholson War Memorial?
 2. How much did it cost to build in 1925?
 3. Who's son, Basil, caused the NWM to be built?
 4. List the names of the battles inscribed around the top of the building?
 5. When was the building formally handed over to the council?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Find the Nicholson Coat of Arms on the balconies and draw it in the space below

The crosses stand for the Nicholson's Christian faith, the sun stands for their authority as local leaders

What would your Coat of Arms look like? Think about your hobbies, beliefs, where you live or your favourite animal.

